Company Profile

Microtek is a renowned player in the power products market of India. It is the most trusted and preferred brand in India. All its products are of premium quality and are designed to cater to the unique requirements of the consumers.

Company Expectations

Being one of the leading brands in India for power products, the customer wanted to have another automatic powder coating line to meet the increasing demand in the market with good transfer efficiency, as well as repeatability and reliability.

Keys to Success

Customer purchased a Gema automatic line in the past and the continuous service support over the years has built trust in Gema and they were satisfied. This new automatic system has fully met the requirements and has achieved quality levels for the production, with only 1 operator required for touch-up.
